Financial Aid Institutional Programs

Free City – Free City is an institutional award program that began in Fall 2017. Supported by the voters of San Francisco, the Free City Program represents a partnership between City College of San Francisco and the City and County of San Francisco. Created to fund the educational goal of San Francisco residents, the program provides eligible City College of San Francisco students with tuition assistance that can cover their enrollment fees. Students’ financial eligibility for the Free City Program is determined by the Financial Aid Office after all Federal and State assistance has been exhausted. Free City Program is for Fall, Spring and Summer semesters. To qualify for the Free City Program at City College of San Francisco, you must continue to be a California resident living in San Francisco.

Student Emergency Funds Application (SEFA) – The Student Emergency Fund was established in the Fall 2020 to financially assist City College of San Francisco students who find themselves in unexpected financial hardship due to circumstances beyond their control. This fund exists to support such students when referred by faculty, Administrator, or staff members of City College of San Francisco.
